

Minot Monthly – March 2014 Transcript

The Knighthawks of the 69th Bomb Squadron deployed to Guam, and the Bomber Barons of the 23rd Bomb Squadron departed for Ellsworth Air Force Base, where they'll stay while the Minot runways are renovated.

Members of the 54th Helicopter Squadron rescued two Montana motorists from flood waters when their vehicle was trapped after a river overran its banks near Savage.

Air National Guard Captain Greg Goodman of the 219th Security Forces Squadron became the first guardsman ever certified as an off-base convoy commander within a missile complex.

Three Olympians also paid us a visit, showing their support for our Airmen and our mission.

Airmen from the 91st Security Forces participated in a morale-boosting, quarterly event called the Top Dog competition.

There's your recap for March; if you'd like to know more, visit our website at www.minot.af.mil, or pick up a copy of the Northern Sentry